

Now Open in Lethbridge

Bond Clothes, manufacturers from Montreal, who for many years have been trying to locate in Lethbridge, can now announce that an exclusive agency has been opened at 408A 6th Street South, opposite Eatons side entrance. A large assortment of materials and patterns in English yarns, worsteds, Gabas, diags, English Flannels and Tweeds, showing the finest styles for spring are to be seen at their new premises. Bond challenges the rising cost of clothing with a 1-2-3 policy. 1—A fixed scale of lowered prices. 2—More skilled tailoring. 3—Better cloth, finer linings, sturdier padding to hold the style lines of your BOND Suit.

The latest method has been adopted for taking perfect measurements with our FOTO-FIT. It's new, it's simple, it's precise, it's measurements by camera. It would pay you to drop in to see the outstanding values that Bond has to offer. Bus. Murdoch is the manager.

Stirling NEWS NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mertz spent Sunday visiting friends and relatives at Taber.

Lyman Hardy left Friday for Lake where he will attend the Central Church Conference.

Mrs. Armand Peterson of Lethbridge, Alberta, visited during the latter week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Ohlman.

Sheldon Barton has returned home after spending the holiday week in Calgary visiting his brother. While there he attended the Carnival and enjoyed very much the performance of Barbara Ann Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed, wife and children of Glenwood were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hardy a couple of days last week.

Dianne and Meredith Bingham of Carleton Place and home on Sunday. They have been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Christensen and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Bingham.

A very enjoyable dance, sponsored by the Explorer group was held Friday evening. Novelty dances were featured and the door prize was won by Grant Erickson. Although the crowd was somewhat disappointing an advance sale of tickets had been made and the boys cleared a reasonable amount for their fund.

On March 30, Dr. J. C. Carney of Lethbridge tested one hundred and sixty five dairy cows in this district for T. B. and Bang's disease. Saturday, April 3rd, a follow up of the T. B. test was made and only one animal was found to be infected. This animal had been shipped here from B. C. The result of the Bang's Disease test will be received shortly it is expected.

A party, including Mr. and Mrs. Willis Fawns, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Hirsche, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Herget, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young and Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Oler motored to Lethbridge Friday evening to attend the Lethbridge Stake Green and Gold Ball. After the dance Mr. and Mrs. Young were hosts to the group for lunch.

On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Dorothy Hirsche entertained a group of ladies at her home. The afternoon was spent doing handwork after which a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

Mrs. W. C. Burnham of Carleton is spending a week here at the H. C. Jacobs home.
